

Chapter 1: Questions

1. What is your first name and how old are you?

This information will be used to personalize your Alchemy of Self manifesto.

2. What was your childhood like overall and what were you told about yourself growing up?

Describe the general atmosphere and environment you grew up in, along with the messages or beliefs your parents, teachers, or other important people instilled in you about your abilities, personality, or potential.

3. What was your educational and early career path like?

Include any major transitions, first jobs, or pivotal professional moments. How did you experience each phase - what did you feel about it at the time? What did these experiences teach you about yourself, work, or life in general? Share as much detail as you can about the journey and its impact on you.

4. Add photos of your childhood home, neighborhood, or places that represent where you grew up.

Explain in depth why you chose these photos. What does each photo represent about your upbringing and the environment that shaped you.

5. Growing up, what role did money play in your household?

Every family has its own relationship with money — whether it was talked about openly, avoided, tight, comfortable, or somewhere in between. Share whatever comes to mind about how it shaped the environment you grew up in.

6. What are the defining moments, big or small, that shaped who you are today?

These could be proud achievements, turning points, or harder experiences you had to move through. For each one, share what happened and the lesson or strength it left you with.

7. What has been the most significant life change or transition you've experienced in recent years?

Describe what happened, why it was important, and how it changed you.

8. Add a photo that represents a significant moment, achievement, or turning point from your past.

Explain what this moment was and why it was so important to your story.

9. What patterns do you notice repeating in your life?

What situations, relationship dynamics, or challenges keep showing up? Be very introspective here - what are certain belief systems that keep stopping you? What internal narratives or assumptions do you find yourself falling back into? Look beyond just the external events to examine the underlying thoughts, fears, or limiting beliefs that might be creating these cycles.
